POSITION RESPONSIBILITIES

Our Drop-In Care Center is bright and cheerful, consisting of two age-appropriate adjoining rooms for children aged 6 weeks to 6 years. The rooms have everything from gentle swings for the babies to a large multi-level play tunnel and educational toys for the older children. Your primary role as an Attendant in either room is to supervise the activities of the children, ensuring their safety and well-being. Playing a key role in promoting fun is just as important. You are expected to engage with the children, whether it is crawling on the floor, stacking blocks, playing games, or throwing soft balls through the child-size basketball hoop. Infant care includes diapering and feeding.

PRIMARY QUALIFICATIONS

Skills: You must have experience working with children, preferably ages 6 weeks – 6 years. Early Childhood Education preferred, but not required.

Competencies: Most important of all, you must enjoy and be comfortable interacting with children ages 6 weeks – 6 years. Other critical competencies include possessing high energy level, patience, caring attitude, the ability to positively interact with staff, children and their families, enjoy working in a noisy, active environment. You must exhibit the Y core values of respect, responsibility, honesty and caring.

Certifications: CPR w/AED and First Aid is a position prerequisite but you are allowed 90 days post-hire to obtain.

Physical Requirements: Must be able to lift children up to 75 pounds. Must be able to interact with the children at floor level, including crawling, sitting on the floor and quick movement.

Age: Minimum age 16 years
