POSITION RESPONSIBILITIES

Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection (WI DATCP), and Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction (DPI), partner with federal AmeriCorps to implement a successful AmeriCorps Farm to School program, which works to decrease childhood obesity by promoting healthy eating habits in students and increasing access to local foods in schools. Your primary goal is to promote healthy eating habits in students and to increase access to local foods in schools. You will accomplish this by: recruiting and training F2S volunteers, participating in community based F2S Task Force, conducting school tastings, developing and maintaining school gardens, developing promotional material, and working directly with farmers and Food Service Directors to bring local fresh foods into the schools.

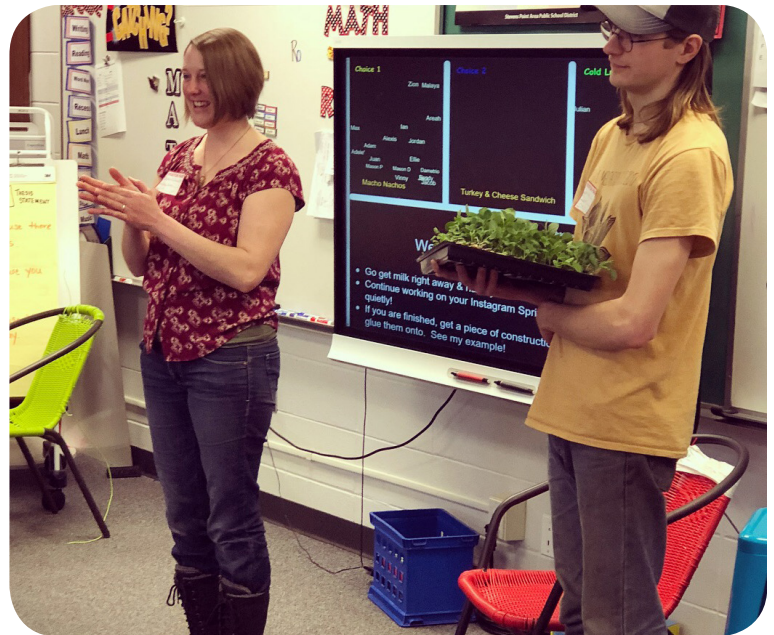

PRIMARY QUALIFICATIONS

Skills: Must possess basic knowledge of healthy eating, natural foods and the science of growing and sustaining foods. Must have experience in group instruction, preferably elementary age children.

Competencies: Most important, you must have a sincere belief in the importance of and the desire to actively promote and educate children on healthy eating and the positive impact of choosing local foods. You must be knowledgeable of basic nutrition, be familiar with Central Wisconsin local food environment, have volunteer management and recruiting experience, and possess training skills. You must exhibit the Y core values of respect, responsibility, honesty, and caring.

Education: High School Diploma/GED required; Bachelor's degree preferred.

Minimum Age: 18

SCHEDULE

Expected Hours Per Week: 20. Position Duration: August 15, 2019 – end of August 14, 2020.

COMPENSATION

AmeriCorps members will receive $284.61 bi-weekly, an education award of $3,047.50 upon successful completion of the service term, student loan deferment while serving, limited reimbursement for travel expenses, and membership to the Stevens Point Area YMCA. Free on-site child care available.
